The Big Full Stop Tidy Up

There has been a big tidy up at the zoo. The zoo keepers have taken away all Roy's full stops from his sentences. Roy is sad. Put the full stops back to make him happy.

Roy balanced the plank on his food bucket

Roy sat on the plank

Lucy dropped a huge rock over the wall

Roy bounced up into the air

Thank you! Roy is smiling now. Read all the sentences. Write a sentence to tell what happens next. Don't forget a full stop at the end.
