Collecting Full Stops

Roy wants to collect some full stops.
Read the story, underline the full stop and put it into Roy's bucket. Roy has done the first one for you.

George wanted to help Roy escape. He went home and thought hard. Next day he bought a plank of wood. He took it to the zoo. Lucy picked it up with her long trunk. She gave it to Roy.

Well done! Now can you add full stops to these sentences?

1. George is a boy He is Roy's friend
2. Roy is a singing zebra He escaped from the zoo
3. Lucy is an elephant
4. Roy wants to find his herd
